

YEAR 2 TENNIS SESSION @ GOSLING

Year 2 attended a tennis session at Gosling Sports Centre. They took part in 10 activities to improve their skills and co-ordination. All children enjoyed the sessions and look forward to putting their new skills to use in their future PE lessons

NURSERY STAY AND PLAY

There is a change to the date of our Stay and Play – it is now on Wednesday 3rd April. You are all invited to come and join in some Spring and Easter activities with your children. Morning Nursery will be at 11:00 and any adults who come along for those children who attend lunch club are welcome to accompany their child down to Pre-school.

Afternoon Nursery will be at 2:45 with an option to leave in time for the PTA Easter Egg hunt after school.

Maths Challenge—Year 6

Cornelius, Damien, Shane and Hashim went to a Maths Challenge at Sherrardswood for High Achievers against 14 other local schools.

“The first part of the afternoon was about surds in preparation for secondary schools. After this was the actual competition where we answered lots of questions. We came 2nd out of the 14 schools.”

Well done boys and what a wonderful achievement!
